

2007–2008 Residence Hall License Contract

SIGN AND RETURN THIS CONTRACT TO THE DEPARTMENT OF HOUSING & RESIDENCE LIFE.

My signature below acknowledges that I have read, understand, and agree to abide by all terms and conditions of the Residence Hall License Contract. I understand that the license contract is a binding legal agreement, which details a set of terms and conditions that I must follow. Additionally, I am requesting a residence hall space and committing to on-campus housing for the academic year 2007-2008. I know that the license contract gives me permission to use housing space, and, once an assignment is made, is a guarantee of a space in a residence hall on campus. I accept responsibility for the residence hall fee and the meal option fee as outlined in the license contract. I understand that I am responsible for any loss of my personal property by damage or theft and that I am encouraged to obtain insurance to protect against such losses. I understand that the license contract is for both semesters of the academic year (Fall 2007 and Spring 2008). I understand that I am obligated to perform on the contract through the final closing of the residence halls for the 2008 spring semester even if I enter into the contract for spring semester only. Also, I understand that the advance payment is nonrefundable.

I understand that the University prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, religion, age, sex, veteran status, color, disability, national origin, or sexual orientation in the licensing of rooms or in the assignment of persons as roommates.
